TWO POPULAR MAUI COUPLES SOON WILL WED

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
WAILUKU, July 20.—Announcement is made this week of the engagement of four of Maui's popular young people. An interesting feature is that one of the brides-to-be and one of the prospective bridegrooms are brother and sister. Miss Maria E. Pogue, of Wailuku, has announced her engagement to Mr. Edmund A. Pickett, of Huelo; and Miss Mary K. Hart, of Wailuku, her coming marriage to Mr. C. Coyle Pogue, of Wailuku. Miss Pogue and Mr. Pickett are daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Pogue. Both have spent most of their later years in California in school, having returned home about a year ago. Miss Pogue expects to leave for the coast in September, and her wedding is planned to take place later in the fall or winter at the home of relatives in Santa Clara, Fresno, Cal., has been in the islands for two years. He was formerly employed by the Kahului Railroad Company but for some time he has been in the employ of the East Maui Irrigation Company, and stationed at Huelo.

Miss Hart, a well known and popular Wailuku girl, is the daughter of Mr. Edmund H. Hart. She is clerk and stenographer in the Wailuku district court. Mr. Pogue, whom she will marry, is associated with his father at Kailua. The date for their marriage has not been set.

HOLLINGER QUILTS BUYING ANIMALS

Ben Hollinger, supervisor and animal fancier, has definitely decided that he will not purchase any more animals for the zoo at Kapiolani park. "There is over $5000 worth of animals and birds there now which I was instrumental in obtaining and I feel that I have done my part," said Hollinger this morning. "I have got the zoo going and if there is any additions they will have to be donated." As soon as he has time Hollinger is going to make a last appeal to the business men of Honolulu for money to pay for the emus and other recent additions and when they are paid for "finis" will be written on his collecting activities.

MAUI NEWS

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
WAILUKU, Maui, July 21.—The supervisors have ordered sealed tenders called for additions to school buildings as follows: Makawao, Haiku, Puukohli, Kula, and a new principal's cottage at the high school, Hamakua-poko.

The county also hopes to make arrangements with the plantations for needed buildings at Camp 10, Spreckelsville, and perhaps Keahua and Paia, which might later be taken over by the county.

Arrested on charge of malicious mischief, Anastasio Martin, a Porto Rican employee of the Maui Agricultural Company, was committed by the Wailuku district court last week to answer before the October term of the court. He was released on bond. The man is alleged to have thrown some iron coupling pins into a carload of cane, which narrowly escaped going into the rollers of the mill.

Worth O. Aiken was yesterday recommended by the Maui chamber of commerce as Maui's representative on the Hawaii Promotion Committee to succeed himself.

In order that its plant may be kept in operation a greater part of the time than is possible at present with pineapples as the sole product, the management of the Haiku Fruit & Packing Company is considering a plan of canning beans and possibly other vegetables during the off season.

The police have begun a campaign against automobilists who drive without taillights. Several arrests were made during the past week. Y. Kanashiro, K. Arakawa and Murakami, each forfeited $5 cash bail for the offense.

Charles Mueitner, formerly wireless operator at Lahaina, has been appointed water works superintendent for that town, succeeding R. P. Hose, who has been placed on the pension list.

A petition for water from the Makawao water system for the children's gardens at Paia, made to the supervisors at their meeting last week, has been referred to the county engineer and superintendent of the Makawao water works.

Through the breaking of the hal-yards on the 80-foot flag staff the usual display of the national emblem in front of the Wailuku court house has been missing for several days. As yet no one has been found willing to undertake the slippery job of climbing to the top of the slender pole with a new rope.

Frank Crockett, son of W. F. Crockett of Wailuku, has returned home from Ann Arbor, Mich., where he completed his law course with high honors. In graduating he received the degree of doctor of jurisprudence, being one of 13 out of a class of 109 members so honored. He will probably join his father in the practice of law on Maui.

FEMALE PRESS AGENT IN CITY SEEKS INFORMATION ON HAWAII

THERE are women traveling representatives for business firms, but only one woman in the United States whose business is to travel in the interests of a hotel.

She arrived this morning on the Matson liner Wilhelmina, and her name is Miss Eileen E. Snyder. The young woman is exceptionally attractive and has a mine of information about everything tourists are interested in. She is on her first visit to Hawaii to learn as much about this territory as possible.

Miss Snyder is traveling representative of the CMT hotel, San Francisco. "My object in coming here is to learn as much as I can about your islands, by seeing them myself," she said. "I can then tell our guests how to see Hawaii and what to see. I will be here four or five weeks and I hope to be a walking promotion committee when I return to San Francisco."

Every fall Miss Snyder packs her trunk and goes East, stopping in every city of importance, fraternizing with the hotel men and women, and boosting for the Pacific coast in general as well as for her particular hotel, so that she hopes to be able to speak authoritatively on the subject of touring in Hawaii, when she "hits the trail" next fall to Chicago and Broadway.

JAPANESE BABY SHOT WITH RIFLE

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
WAILUKU, Maui, July 20.—A 22-caliber target rifle in the hands of 7-year-old Kulanu Robinson, of Paia, brought instant death to Kioko Takista, a Japanese baby, aged 2 years, on Tuesday morning of this week. The Robinson child is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robinson, of Paia. The Japanese baby was the son of Mrs. Akio Takista, a washwoman employed at the Robinson home.

The accident, which is a peculiarly distressing one, occurred between 10 and 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning while the children were at play. The Japanese mother was busy with her work at the time. The Robinson child, in exploring a big grain bin in the washhouse found the rifle which her grandfather had been using a few days before for shooting minah birds and had hidden away without removing the cartridges. In play she pointed the weapon at the baby and pulled the trigger. The bullet entered the back of the infant's skull emerging from the forehead, death being instantaneous.

Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY WEDS MAINLAND GIRL

Following his marriage to Miss Ruth Reeves of Anderson, Indiana, Rolla K. Thomas, educational secretary of the Y. M. C. A., expects to leave the mainland again for Honolulu on July 25.

On July 7 Thomas was married to Miss Reeves at the bride's home in Anderson, Miss Mary Reeves was maid of honor at the wedding and Charles Kirschner of Indianapolis was best man. Others who took part were Little Jean Frances Roselle, who was flower girl, and Miss Catherine Langell, who sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," preceding the ceremony.

Mrs. Thomas is the daughter of C. R. Reeves, a photographer of Anderson. She graduated from Anderson high school in 1908, is also a graduate of the state university where she was a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, and since then has been an instructor in the Junior high school.

FINED $100 FOR DRIVING AUTOMOBILE WHILE DRUNK

For running an automobile while under the influence of liquor, Ernest McCall, a member of the crew of the Matsonia, was fined $100 by Judge Harry Irwin this morning. McCall also faced the court on charge of having taken the car without permission and driven it without a license. The second charge was nolle prossed and the sentence on the third suspended. McCall took car number 61, a Chalmers owned by the Thomas Pineapple Company, on July 21, and was arrested on Merchant street by Officer J. C. Branco.

RIVENBURGH IS MUM ON MATTER OF TRIP

Bertram G. Rivenburgh, commissioner of public lands, yesterday declined to comment on a printed story to the effect that Senator M. C. Pacheco of Oahu intends to investigate who paid for a recent trip to Washington.

At the auditor's office it was stated that no vouchers had been presented for the trip by Rivenburgh, and that the books closed for the period on Saturday.

WILL MOVE TERRITORIAL WAREHOUSE TO NEW SITE

Now that the Davies warehouse has been removed from the foot of Bishop street to allow the extension of the street to the waterfront, all that remains in the way is the territorial warehouse. At the meeting of the governor and board of supervisors last week this matter was taken up as the county has its electrical repair shop in the building. It is planned to move the building to Allen street, opposite the old marine railway where the territory has leased a strip of land from the Bishop estate.

POLICE NOTES

For hitting S. Y. Choy with a bottle, Joe De Mello was fined $25 by Judge Irwin.

Duck Loon, a Chinaman, was fined $50 for having opium in possession in police court today.

On a statutory charge, Annie Peters and F. Espritu were found guilty and fined $30 and $50, respectively.

For driving an automobile without a license, S. Yoshino was fined $10 and costs in the police court this morning.

Four drunks, John Mordman, Henry Berger, Dick Rohde and William Lupeas, were quickly disposed of by fines of $10, $5, $10 and $5, respectively.

DR. SUN YAT SEN WANTS CANTON AS CHINESE CAPITAL

(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji.)
TOKIO, Japan, July 24.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen is urging Chinese to establish the capital at Canton in Kwantung province. At the present time one faction favors Peking, another is boosting for Nanking, and now comes the proposal that the Southern city be made the capital. Nanking is the most central of the three cities, and is considered one of the healthiest cities in China.
